February, 2022

Dear Parent/Guardian(s):

FOR ACTION BY JULY 1, 2022

Enclosed is a “Transportation Application for Private/Parochial (K-12)” form for the 2022-2023 school year. Please complete and return the form to the transportation department no later than July 1, 2022.

Also enclosed is a “Transportation Day Care Form” for the 2022-2023 school year. Requests for day care transportation may be submitted for students in grade K-8 only. The day care provider must be located within the Greece Central School District boundaries. Please complete and return the form to the transportation department no later than July 1, 2022.

Transportation to a Private/Parochial school, or to a Day care, will only be arranged by submitting these forms by JULY 1, 2022. These form can also be found on the school district’s website:
www.greececsd.org

Should your child have a serious medical condition that may require support from the bus driver, please contact the District Medical Director, Mary K. Perrello at 966-2876.

Please Note: Transportation may not be provided for any Greece resident students attending private, parochial, or charter schools when Greece schools are not in session due to emergency closings, scheduled breaks, and/or professional development. The Greece school district’s 2022-2023 calendar will be posted on the Greece Central web site later this Spring. Additionally, transportation will be provided by GCSD on designated early release days that are determined by your child’s school and that coincide with the number of early release days for each grade level on the Greece calendar.

The Transportation Department can be reached via the following:
